

English as a Foreign Language Teacher – Voluntary Position

Synopsis Of Role:

Audacious Foundation is looking for an EFL Teacher to work in the Audacious School of Language to continue and expand provision of language lessons to non-native speaking adults in Greater Manchester. The role will involve teaching English language and skills to elementary, intermediate or advanced level learners in line with funding agreements held by the Foundation. We are looking for an enthusiastic and dynamic teacher, who is qualified and experienced in teaching engaging and communicative lessons.

Desirable knowledge and skills

- TEFL-i status: first degree and TEFL certification (CELTA/ CertTESOL or equivalent)
- 2 years' experience teaching EFL post-CELTA (UK or abroad) is desirable.
- Enthusiastic and hard working
- Excellent communication skills
- Works well within a team
- Commitment to professional development and responding to student feedback
- Excellent organisational skills & confident with IT.
- Can adapt to the needs of the students and teach to large groups with confidence.
- Can offer a degree of support to students with questions about work, study, further exams available and life in the UK.

Key Tasks and Responsibilities

- To teach engaging, communicative lessons, online or face-to-face, to Audacious School of Language students.
- To teach weekly classes in line with the Audacious School of Language curriculum, for either Elementary (CEFR A2), Intermediate (CEFR B1+) or Advanced (CEFR C1) level classes.
- To adapt lessons to suit the needs of the learners, be that in level, linguistic priorities, age or motivation for learning.
- To interact supportively and appropriately with all students, ensuring all students are welcomed and included in the School of Language community.
- To complete associated administrative duties, including termly and weekly registration, records of work and student feedback.
- To liaise with staff and volunteers across the relevant departments within the Audacious Foundation and Audacious Church.